SUMMER READING PROGRAM!

Runs from June 9–August 1

It's finally here! Our all-ages summer reading program Color Our World is going to bring lots of programming, crafts, reading, and fun to the library! We can't wait for you to explore the library this summer. Stop by to learn more about our offerings this summer! Tracking minutes can be done through Reader Zone or by picking up a physical reading log!

LIBRARY EXPERIENCE PASSES

Grab the family and explore the library's experience pass collection! We have passes to Building for Kids, Bookworm Gardens, Oshkosh Public Museum, Wisconsin Historical Sites, and State Park Day Passes to make your summer even more fun!

KIDS AUDIOVISUAL MATERIALS

Going for a long car ride? Does your young reader like to listen to stories? Check out one of our new WhaZoodles or Yoto boxes (coming soon) to try an audio experience!

PRETEND PLAY STATION!

All summer long!

Ages 4 and up | Kids Area

Look for our dramatic play station set up in the kids department this summer! We will be having a special theme to match our summer reading program. Come and play anytime the library is open!

NEW PUZZLE COLLECTION

We have new kids puzzles! You will find them located next to the Wonderbooks. They are sorted by number of pieces and are waiting for you to take them home and give them a try!

SUMMER STORYWALK™!

Runs from June 9–August 15

Enjoy a summer walk around the library! While you walk around and enjoy our summer garden maintained by the Master Gardeners of Winnebago County, read our Summer Storywalk™ title, Our Pool by Lucy Cummins.

TEAM PAINTBRUSH OR TEAM PASTEL?

Who will win the library visit challenge? Join Team Paintbrush or Team Pastel and add a sticker to our board every time you stop by! At the end of the summer we will see who won the challenge-- the paintbrushes or the pastels?
